

GERASIM TEMELKOV

Gerasim Temelkov is a specialist in internal medicine and gastroenterology with extensive experience leading clinical departments and running private practices. Since January 2025, he has been the owner and director of a private gastroenterology and longevity practice in Sofia, Bulgaria, focusing on patient centered care, advanced diagnostics, and treatment of a wide range of gastrointestinal disorders. The practice emphasizes empathy, clear communication, and minimizing patient discomfort, fostering trust and high satisfaction throughout the healthcare journey. Previously, he served as Head of the Gastroenterology Department at Hospital Lozenets in Sofia (May 2022–Nov 2024), where he established and developed a new department dedicated to the diagnosis, treatment, and research of gastrointestinal diseases, combining clinical expertise with strategic leadership to build high performing teams. He also led the Gastroenterology, Oncology, and Diabetology Department at St. Maria General Hospital, Ahaus, Germany (Sep 2020–Apr 2022), overseeing clinical care, departmental administration, and strategic development. Earlier roles include Specialist in Internal Medicine and Gastroenterology at Helios St. Elisabeth Klinik Oberhausen, Germany, where he completed postgraduate training and focused specialization in gastroenterology and emergency medicine.
